

CALL FOR ARTISTS

Submission deadline: April 15, 2009

Theme: "A House of Prayer for All People"

"This is a great opportunity for our students and artists across the state of Kentucky to display their expressions of religious life in this venue. Our chapel will not only be a place of spoken prayer, but also a place of visual prayer as portrayed through the artists' works." –H.K. Kingkade (Director of Religious Life)

The Art Department and the Office of Religious Life of Georgetown College are collaborating to showcase a form of worship through art. Artists from Kentucky are invited to participate in an exhibition on display in the John L. Hill Chapel on the campus of Georgetown College for one year.

Duration and Important Dates: Applications must be submitted by April 15, 2009. Selections will be made and the artists will be contacted by May 1. Accepted works should arrive on campus by May 22, 2009. The work will be on display from June 1, 2009 to May 2010.

Work Criteria: The theme of the work should take inspiration from the quote above. All work must be no larger than 20" X 30". Work will be hung using d-rings and hooks. All pieces should be framed or mounted allowing for hanging mechanism to attach to the work. There is limited room for 3-D pieces.

When submitting applications, please include the following:

- Up to 3 digital images of the work
- Image list with title, media, dimensions, and date for each work
- Price, if for sale; otherwise NFS (not for sale)
- Artist contact information (name, mailing address, phone number, email address)
- Artist statement identifying connection to the exhibition theme

Send to:

Georgetown College Art Department
c/o Angelina McCoy, Curatorial Assistant
Ref: Call for Artists
400 East College St.
Georgetown, KY 40324

Or e-mail: galleries@georgetowncollege.edu

Digital and e-mail submission preferred, however if you would like your submission materials returned, please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

