POLICIES REGARDING EXAMS:

Students must take exams at the scheduled times.

With prior agreement of the professor and the Registrar, students may take exams with another section of the same course taught by the same professor.

Professors may not alter the examination schedule without prior written approval of the Provost.

Students with three or more exams on the same day may petition the Provost for a change in schedule. Such requests should be made in writing to provost@georgetowncollege.edu at least two weeks prior to the beginning of final examinations.

If your class time is not represented, round down the start time of your class to the nearest standard class hour in order to identify the exam time.

Online Classes: Online classes may meet in person for final exams. If an instructor would like to reserve a classroom for the final exam of an online class, they must submit this request to the Registrar by October 1.
